

NEWSLETTER December, 2020

From the office...

As we head toward the Christmas season, we will be participating in Children's Hospital of Philadelphia's "Pajama Day" on Friday, Dec. 4th. We ask that each family bring in $5 (or whatever your means permit) for this charity. CHOP's PJ Day uses the funds where they are most needed, to further their mission of saving children's lives. If Friday isn't a day your child attends, you can still participate. Our goal this year is to raise $250.00. Thank you for your support!

Thank you to all that participated in the Original Artworks fundraiser. Your items should be here by December 14th!

Holiday Competition starts December 14th. The staff will be decorating Christmas trees (the small, artificial kind) and voting will be from the 14th through the 21st. Winning classroom receives a pizza party. Themed trees and ballots will be in the front lobby! Good luck to all our classrooms!

Don't forget about the Scholastic Books. Order on-line and take advantage of the great low prices. Go to Scholastic.com/bookclubhelp. Use the class code QYQLY to order your books. They'll be sent directly to our center. Books always make great gifts!

Please welcome Miss Maureen to the staff. She'll be working the 3 ~ 6 pm shift. We are happy to have her with us!

Just a reminder, we will be closed for the Christmas holidays beginning December 24th through January 3rd. We will reopen on Monday, January 4th. Remember you are not charged tuition for the week we are closed.

Have a wonderful Christmas!
Donna and Trish
